A Special Visitor

We had a very special guest in school this week who caused absolute chaos! We may have caught him stealing presents and being mischievous in the playground but he has been a hit with our children and spread some Christmas cheer!

KS1 Nativity

Thank you to all the parents who attended our KS1 nativity and supported the children. A big well done to the children, teachers and TAs for all their hard work in making the play so amazing!

KS2 Christmas Service

Polite reminder that Ks2 will be doing their Christmas Service at St Michaels next Tuesday 12th 9:30-10:30am. Parents are welcome!

Breakfast with Santa

Polite reminder that on Monday the 11th the PTA are hosting a Breakfast with Santa in the hall. This will begin at 8am where children can come in and have their breakfast and receive a small present from Santa. All payments and consent forms have now been finalised and unfortunately we are not able to allocate any new places. If you have any questions please contact the Victoria Road PTA on Facebook or call the school office.

Pantomime Payments

Remember to pay for the pantomime tickets for your child before next Friday, the 15th of December! Years 1-6 are asked to pay on the School Gateway and EYFS can bring cash into the office or give it to the class teacher.

Carols around the Christmas Tree

Unfortunately, we will not be able to participate in the Carols around the Christmas Tree service at St Michaels this year. We apologise for the short notice and look forward to participating next year!

Employee of the Week

Our employee of the week this week is Mr Sankey! He does a great job at supervising our KS2 children at dinner time and always participates in games with them like football. Thank you Mr Sankey!
